“When my family and I were stationed here we didn’t think we would have so many financial burdens, but this diaper distribution has been such a blessing.”

“First it was help with Christmas gifts, assistance to pay my past due electricity and now diapers and wipes for my three-year-olds. I am grateful for everything the Community Action Agency has done for my family. I have just completed another part-time semester at the University of Baltimore, putting me one step closer to self-sufficiency.”
